11:21 a.m. Board Delegation to the Director for Initiating and Acceptance of Grants

Mr. Ricks said that IDPR has applied for a Waterways Improvement Fund (WIF) grant in the FY 2008 funding cycle to install a wave attenuator at Dworshak's Big Eddy Marina.

Part of the match for the $277,400 WIF grant (total project cost of $467,658) is a USDA Rural Business Economic Development Grant (RBEG) being secured through the Clearwater County Economic Development Group in the amount of $28,000 to start design and engineering on the wave attenuator project. During the application process, staff at the USDA has required proof of authorization from the Director or Board to sign for federal grants. While Idaho statutes convey this authorization in a general sense, Mr. Ricks requested formal authorization and documentation that the IDPR Director has the authority to sign and accept federal grants.

Mr. Ricks had Deputy Attorney Steve Strack review Idaho Code § 67-4223 (i) and his response was as follows:

“After reviewing the statutes defining the respective authorities of the Board and the Director, it looks like Ms. Hair's analysis is correct. Idaho Code § 67-4223(i) explicitly empowers the Board to "Apply to any appropriate agency or officer of the United States for participation by the department or a political subdivision of the state or the receipt of aid from any federal program respecting outdoor recreation." There is no specific statutory authority for the Director to make such applications.”

Idaho law regarding delegation of governmental authorities is fairly broad, and Idaho Code § 67-4222 specifically authorizes the Board to delegate authorities to the Director.

Mr. Ricks requested formal Board authorization and documentation that the IDPR Director has the authority to sign and accept federal grants.

Discussion followed.

This may involve recruiting for new members or reappointing existing members.
